Trumpet player, improviser and PhD researcher in Music Composition and Performance at the Conservatorio Statale di Musica “Luisa D’Annunzio”, Pescara (joint programme with the conservatories of Ferrara, Trieste and Udine).

DOCTORAL RESEARCH

since 12/2025 — Improvvisare lo Spazio (Improvising Space), doctoral research, Conservatorio di Pescara. Supervisor: Laura Zattra; co-supervisor: Matteo Tomasetti.

The project investigates the relationship between musical improvisation and urban sound space, in places marked by acoustic and social complexity.

2026 — Urban listening and improvisation workshop, Vicenza, Musica Bacàn residency (19 June). Field recording in the city, shared re-listening and improvisation with six musicians. Reflexive thematic analysis (Braun & Clarke) of a corpus comprising an autoethnographic journal, a focus group, an interview and questionnaires.

2026 — Listening lab and site-specific performance, Parco Bergamini, Casal Bruciato (Rome), with APS Green Park Bergamini (7 November). Collective field recording and shared re-listening, followed by an improvised performance by nine musicians moving through the park.
